The power of simplicity and versatility

"Simplicity and functionality are the essence of good design. Every detail needs to be essential to the design, so all aspects of the design are examined and justified before a product is put into production".

Meet Søren Refsgaard, designer of the Crayola® x Room Copenhagen product line. Refsgaard has designed for some of the leading Danish design brands and is deeply influenced by the aesthetic qualities found in the Scandinavian design tradition. With the new Crayola® range he has managed to translate the iconic Crayola® brand into functional interior design products with a playful twist.

A new approach to a well-known shape

The design behind the new Crayola® x Room Copenhagen product line is highly inspired by the classic and iconic Crayola® Crayon. With ingenious, creative touches the designer Søren Refsgaard has transformed the shape of the Crayola® Crayon into products that have already become iconic in their own way. Familiar yet new.
